“FESTE VENEZIANE”

Music • Baroque Dance • Painting & Drawing • Cooking

Enjoy an unforgettable week, full with artistic and culinary experiences in the marvellous medieval cloister of the regional archaeological museum in Perugia.

- Receive an attractive discount when you subscribe before 1 April!
- Tutors of Accademia Amsterdam take you on a musical journey through Venice.
- Baroque Dance classes for intermediate & advanced participants with Ricardo Barros.
- Extra: choir singing with maestro Antonio Magarelli and basic dance classes.
- Alongside courses Italian cooking and visual arts for partners and others.

Music & Dance courses

Enjoy ensemble music, (choir) singing and baroque dance. Everybody can participate at his own level. Join the (small) choir, as a soloist, as a dancer or as an instrumentalist. Extra master classes at request. Additional workshops to improve singing technique.

I Coristi italiani potranno partecipare gratis al coro (senza classe di canto).

- Chamber & vocal music by baroque composers, from and inspired by Venice, like Vivaldi.
- Vocal & instrumental music from “Les Fêtes Vénitiennes” and other works by Campra.
- Compositions about water, gondolas, Neptune: like Handel’s and Telemann’s “Water Music”.
- Dances written in 1722: from “Les Fêtes Vénitiennes” by Campra, and other dances.
- Extra: improvisation classes on a chaconne-ground for instrumentalists and singers.

Arts & Cooking courses

Open to interested people of any level and age, including children, friends and partners of participants who follow other courses. Experience is not necessary, since you get individual guidance.

- Venetian “vedute” as inspiration; free subjects are also possible in drawing & painting.
- Focus on the traditional Italian cuisine. Appetizers, pastas & pastries, desserts, Italian or local dishes.
